

Katarina Nilsson

Naming Strategist | Entrepreneur | Certified Joy Of Business Facilitator

Katarina Nilsson is an entrepreneur with 15 years' experience as a naming expert and strategist. She's also an artist and certified Joy of Business facilitator.

Through her business, Eqvarium, she has helped create names for some of the world's most recognisable brands such as Sony Ericsson, H&M, Toyota, Electrolux and BabyBjörn.

A renowned expert in naming strategy, Nilsson has been a keynote speaker at universities and organisations around Europe. She has a Master of Arts degree, has studied Branding and International Property Law and speaks several languages fluently, including Swedish, English, Spanish and German.

A passionate change agent, Katarina draws upon the tools and teachings of Access Consciousness™ and Joy of Business to support positive change for individuals and groups, whether it be expanding a business, unlocking creativity, inviting play and lightness into life or making changes for the better in the body.

Press Topics

- Monetize your creativity
- How to create money with ease
- Unleash your creativity – be aware where you're stopping yourself
- The art of naming – what's the secret to a good brand name?
- Creativity for business; how can I achieve REAL innovation?
- Creation from relaxation – when business meets pleasure
- How to choose a profitable brand name
- How to increase sales by not thinking about the numbers
- How to run multiple businesses as single mum
- Getting out of depression and into expression